

DRAMA NEW SOUTH WALES

Privacy collection statement

Drama NSW (we, us or our) may collect, use and disclose personal information about you. We collect personal information directly from you, from third parties acting on your behalf and may also collect personal information passively through our website.

We collect personal information for the purposes of processing your membership application or subscription, preparing and publishing content submissions and community postings, liaising with relevant organisations to encourage and support our mission, providing you with information about other services, functions or events that may be of interest to you, notifying you of various activities including seminars and conferences and facilitating our internal business operations, including the fulfilment of any legal requirements. If the personal information you provide is incomplete or inaccurate, we may not be able to provide you with the services you seek.

We may disclose personal information about you to our affiliated organisations, including The National Association for Drama Australia and the International Drama/Theatre and Education Association and third party service providers who assist us in operating our business (including information technology service providers). We are likely to disclose your personal information overseas. For instance, our service providers or other recipients may be based outside Australia, including New Zealand.

Our privacy policy, which can be accessed on our website or on request, sets out how you can access and ask for correction of your personal information, how you can complain about privacy-related matters and how we respond to complaints.
